

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, November 28 1704

From the Rotterdam Gaz. dated Nov. 27.

Liège, Nov. 21.

THE Army of the Allies commanded by Monsieur d'Auverquerque, will, 'tis generally believ'd, separate in four or five days. Our Magistrates have receiv'd Orders to make Preparations for lodging 12 Battallions and 6 Squadrons: And we expect still a more numerous Garrison, because that of the Enemies in Namur is to consist of 18 Battallions and 12 Squadrons; and besides, the Enemies design to put proportionable Garrisons into all their Frontier Places. The Elector of Cologne's Troops are quarter'd in Dinant, Thuin, Fosse and Marchienne au Pont. 'Tis talk'd General Heukelom will come and command here this Winter.

Dublin, Nov. 20. The Transport Ships having on board the Forces for Portugal, sail'd from Corke the 16th instant, under Convoy of several of Her Majesty's Ships, with a fair Wind.

Falmouth, Nov. 23. This day sail'd Her Majesty's Ship the Blackwall for Plymouth, with three or four Sail of Merchant Ships under her Convoy.

Plymouth, Nov. 24. Yesterday came in Her Majesty's Ship the Blackwall from Falmouth, with three Ships bound for London under her Convoy; And this day came in Her Majesty's Ship the from Scilly.

Bristol, Nov. 25. Yesterday arriv'd here the Dragon, John Jones Master, from Newfoundland. The Master reports, that Her Majesty's Ships of War and some Letter of Mart Ships at Newfoundland, have taken above 20 Sail of French Bankers. This Afternoon arriv'd the Devonshire Pink, Christopher Jones Master, the Resolution Peter Holbrook Master, and the Cornwall Ja. Day Master, all three from the Leeward Islands, being separated from the rest of the Fleet the 3d instant.

London, November 28.

Late last Night arriv'd the 2 Mails due from Holland; which bring Advice that Landau surrendered the 24th of November. The principal Articles of the Capitulation are these following.

I. The Sieur de Laubanie shall deliver to the Emperor's Troops one of the Gates of the Town, the 25th of November at 8 in the Morning: And the 26th before Noon, the Garrison shall march out of the Place with all Marks of Honour, viz, Drums beating Colours flying, Ball in Mouth, Match lighted, and 36 Charges of Powder each Man; as also with their Baggage.

II. The Garrison shall carry out with them 4 Pieces of Cannon, 2 of them 24 Pounders, one 12 Pounder, and one 6 Pounder; as also 2 Mortars.

III. They shall be allow'd to take with them Powder and Bullets for 24 Discharges each Piece; 24 Bombs; and as many Waggons, Carriages and Horses as are necessary for carrying the same to Strasbourg. And 2 Waggons are freely allow'd them, for carrying the Headpieces and Cuirasses.

V. All the Horses and Baggage of the Officers, Soldiers, and others that are in the Service of the King of France, are allow'd to be carried out; except those belonging properly to his most Christian Majesty.

VI. There shall be furnish'd, at the Expence of his Imperial Majesty, 400 Waggons drawn by 4 Horses each, for carrying the Baggage, the Sick and the Wounded.

XI. When the Garrison marches out, no Injury shall be done to any one among them, Man or Woman: Their Movables or Baggage shall not be touch'd: And all the Prisoners taken on both Sides since the Declaration of War shall be set at Liberty.

XII. All the Inhabitants of the Town, as well Jews as Christians shall be included in this Capitulation. And shall be permitted freely to buy of the Garrison the Movables they will not carry off.

XIX. The Officers Equipages shall not be search'd: Six cover'd Waggons shall be allow'd, and shall not be search'd; Nor shall any French Deserters be detain'd.

XXIV. The Officers and Soldiers of the Garrison shall be allow'd to take Provisions with them for 4 days.

XXVIII. The Imperial Troops shall not take any Frenchman out of the Ranks, when the Garrison marches out, nor any Soldier, German Deserters excepted; nor shall they constrain or perswade any to take Service in his Imperial Majesty's Army, not tho' they should find any dispos'd to it.

Done at the Camp at Ilbersheim before Landau, Nov. 24. 1704. Sign'd,

The Margrave Louis of Baden, Monsieur de Laubanie.

The Garrison of Landau march'd out 3486 Men strong. The Count de Frise is made Governor of it. In it were found 60 Pieces of Cannon, 21 Mortars, a great Quantity of Bullets and Bombs, 50000 Weight of Powder, &c. The King of the Romans is gone to Heidelberg, with the E. Palatin, the P. of Baden, and P. Eugene, to meet the E. of Menz.

†† A Doctor in Phyfick, Cures all the Degrees, and Indispositions, in Venerall Persons; and by a most easie, safe, and expeditious Method: He likewise gives his advice in all Diseases, and prescribes a Cure. Dr. Harborough (a Graduate Physician) in Great Knight-Rider-street, near Doctors-Commons.

The Famous Antirheumatick Tincture, prepared only by Mr. Geo. Wilson Chymist, at his Elaboratory in Well-yard near St. Bartholomew's Hospital in Smithfield. The Reputation this Tincture hath acquir'd by its wonderful Operation, put me beyond thought of ever publishing it again in this manner, till I was inform'd that it was counterfeited by some Person that falsely pretends to it; whereas its true Preparation exceeds the Skill of common Jumblers of Concretes for Medicines. It hath cured several hundred Persons of Quality and others, not only of Rheumatick Pains, but also of other chronick Diseases. They who have the Curiosity to be farther satisfied of its Effects, may at the place aforesaid see several Letters from Persons of Quality, Physicians, Chyurgeons and Apothecaries, giving an Account of the admirable Cures it has perform'd. It is no where sold but at the place above mention'd, and by my Daughter Mrs. Wilson, at the Hermit's Head six Doors from James-street in Long-Acre towards Drury-Lane. It is put up in Bottles containing something more than half a quarter of a Pint, at 2 s. 6 d. the Bottle with Directions. The Materia Medica, and Modus Preparandi (in general) shall not be denied to any Physicians, especially to those Gentlemen that have been enter'd by me in the excellent and useful Science of Chymistry, of which number there are many eminent Physicians now living in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy, Germany, Swedeland, &c.
